

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Ukrainian Society in Switzerland and its regional branches with support of the Embassy of Ukraine in Bern warmly invites you to visit the photo exhibition PROMKA. It is the photo exhibition of the Ukrainian war photographer Oleksandr Kromplias, who himself took part in the military conflicts in the eastern Ukraine in 2014. The photo exhibition describes the situation in the small city Avdiyivka and in particular of one of its industrial areas called Promka, which gave the name to this exhibition.

Oleksandr shoots his photos on the film and sometimes on his Polaroid instant camera. In this series of pictures he documented the everyday life of the military conflict participants.

This exhibition was already presented in Kyiv, the capital of Ukraine, with a great deal of interest and attention from the population and quests of the city. The Swiss tour consists of the two events: one in Geneva and on in Zurich. Currently, we expect the confirmation from the Ukrainian Embassy in München, Germany on the possibility to present the exhibition there in April (preliminary on 8th and 14th of April).

We kindly invite diplomats, journalists, representatives of the Ukrainian diaspora and everybody, who is interested to learn more about the situation in Ukraine, to join us:
